Court Administrator

Supreme Court of the Philippines

Committee on Family Courts and Juvenile Concerns

The Committee on the Family Courts and Juvenile Concerns, pursuant to its mandate under Supreme Court Memorandum Order No. 20-2014 dated August 13, 2014 has been given the duty to “formulate the Implementing Rules and Regulations and other rules for R.A. 8369” otherwise known as the Family Courts Act of 1997.

It has also been tasked to “draft plans for the organization of family courts to include (a) the creation/development of staffing pattern for family courts; (b) determination of number of courts that must be created under national legislation; (c) report on training needs assessment of all actors in [the] family and juvenile justice sector; (d) recommendations for infrastructure requirements for family courts; and (e) pilot family courts that will have ideal guidelines, resources, environment, facilities and staff for addressing family and juvenile justice concerns.”

In addition, the Committee has been mandated to “monitor the implementation of the plan for the creation and organization of family courts including the identification of procedural rules and court guidelines, as well as judicial and legal forms that must be adopted to increase the effectiveness and efficiency of family courts.”

This survey is a preliminary step in fulfilling this mandate of the Committee under the above-cited Supreme Court Memorandum Order No. 20-2014. Your cooperation in answering this questionnaire will contribute to the success of the work of the Committee in proposing to the Supreme Court En Banc the needed reforms to achieve a speedier, more effective and efficient disposition of cases under the jurisdiction of the Family Courts.
