CODE OF PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY AND ACCOUNTABILITY

PREAMBLE

Ethics is the experiential manifestation of moral standards. The observance of these standards of conduct is both a function of personal choice and formal compulsion. A lawyer is ideally ethical by personal choice. A code of ethics expressly adopted represents society's consensus and dictate to conform to a chosen norm of behavior that sustains the community's survival and growth.

The Code of Professional Responsibility and Accountability (CPRA), as an institutional imperative, is meant to foster an environment where ethical conduct performs a dedicated role in the administration of justice. In particular, the standards embodied in the CPRA uniquely address the characteristics of the Filipino lawyer as an amalgamation of influences and moorings, i.e., familial, cultural, religious, academic, political, and philosophical. Inherently a social being, the Filipino lawyer inevitably develops and cultivates relations, preferences and biases. The conscious adoption of ethical standards that accounts for such relationships and personal choices balanced against the demands of right and justice is envisioned to govern and regulate these personal choices and make them consistent with the institutional objectives.

The existence of a free and an independent society depends upon the recognition of the concept that justice is based on the rule of law.

As a guardian of the rule of law, every lawyer, as a citizen, owes allegiance to the Constitution and the laws of the land; as a member of the legal profession, is bound by its ethical standards in both private and professional matters; as an officer of the court, assists in the administration of justice; and as a client's representative, acts responsibly upon a fiduciary trust.

An ethical lawyer is a lawyer possessed of integrity. Integrity is the sum total of all the ethical values that every lawyer must embody and exhibit. A lawyer with integrity, therefore, acts with independence, propriety, fidelity, competence and diligence, equality and accountability.

Failure to abide by the Code results in sanctions.

CANON I INDEPENDENCE

The independence of a lawyer in the discharge of professional duties without any improper influence, restriction, pressure, or interference, direct or indirect, ensures effective legal representation and is ultimately imperative for the rule of law.

SECTION 1. *Independent, accessible, efficient, and effective legal service. — A lawyer shall make legal services accessible in an efficient and effective manner. In performing this duty, a lawyer shall maintain independence, act with integrity, and at all times ensure the efficient and effective delivery of justice.

SECTION 2. *Merit-based practice. — A lawyer shall rely solely on the merits of a cause and not exert, or give the appearance of, any influence on, nor undermine the authority of, the court, tribunal or other government agency, or its proceedings.

SECTION 3. *Freedom from improper considerations and external influences. — A lawyer shall not, in advocating a client's cause, be influenced by dishonest or immoral considerations, external influences, or pressure.

A lawyer shall not, in demand letters or other similar correspondence, make false representations or statements, or impute civil, criminal, or administrative liability, without factual or legal basis.

A lawyer shall correct false or inaccurate statements and information made in relation to an application for admission to the bar, any pleading, or any other document required by or submitted to the court, tribunal or agency, as soon as its falsity or inaccuracy is discovered or made known to him or her.

SECTION 15. *Improper claim of influence or familiarity. —

A lawyer shall observe propriety in all dealings with officers and personnel of any court, tribunal, or other government agency, whether personal or professional. Familiarity with such officers and personnel that will give rise to an appearance of impropriety, influence, or favor shall be avoided.

A lawyer shall not, directly or indirectly, advertise legal services on any platform or media except with the use of dignified, verifiable, and factual information, including biographical data, contact details, fields of practice, services offered, and the like, so as to allow a potential client to make an informed choice. In no case shall the permissible advertisement be self-laudatory.

A lawyer, law firm, or any of their representatives shall not pay or give any benefit or consideration to any media practitioner, award-giving body, professional organization, or personality, in anticipation of, or in return for, publicity or recognition, to attract legal representation, service, or retainership.

SECTION 24. *Encroaching or interfering in another lawyer's engagement; exception. — A lawyer shall not, directly or indirectly, encroach upon or interfere in the professional engagement of another lawyer.

SECTION 27. *Partner who assumes public office. — When a partner assumes public office, such partner shall withdraw from the firm and such partner's name shall be removed from the firm name, unless allowed by law to practice concurrently.

SECTION 28. *Dignified government service. — Lawyers in government service shall observe the standard of conduct under the CPRA, the Code of Conduct and Ethical Standards for Public Officials and Employees, and other related laws and issuances in the performance of their duties.

SECTION 33. *Conflict of interest for lawyers in the academe. — A lawyer serving as a dean, administrative officer, or faculty member of an educational institution shall disclose to the institution any adverse interest of a client.

Upon discovery of any adverse interest of the lawyer's client which directly affects any student who is under his or her direct supervision and guidance, the lawyer shall likewise disclose the same to the institution.

SECTION 34. *Paralegal services; lawyer's responsibility. — A paralegal is one who performs tasks that require familiarity with legal concepts, employed or retained by a lawyer, law office, corporation, governmental agency, or other entity for non-diagnostic and non-advisory work in relation to legal matters delegated by such lawyer, law office, corporation, governmental agency, or other entity.

A lawyer must direct or supervise a paralegal in the performance of the latter's delegated duties.

The lawyer's duty of confidentiality shall also extend to the services rendered by the paralegal, who is equally bound to keep the privilege.

SECTION 44. *Online posts that could violate conflict of interest. — A lawyer shall exercise prudence in making posts or comments in social media that could violate the provisions on conflict of interest under the CPRA.

CANON III FIDELITY

Fidelity pertains to a lawyer's duty to uphold the Constitution and the laws of the land, to assist in the administration of justice as an officer of the court, and to advance or defend a client's cause, with full devotion, genuine interest, and zeal in the pursuit of truth and justice.

SECTION 1. *Practice of law. — The practice of law is the rendition of legal service or performance of acts or the application of law, legal principles, and judgment, in or out of court, with regard to the circumstances or objectives of a person or a cause, and pursuant to a lawyer-client relationship or other engagement governed by the CPRA. It includes employment in the public service or private sector and requires membership in the Philippine bar as qualification.

SECTION 2. *The responsible and accountable lawyer. — A lawyer shall uphold the constitution, obey the laws of the land, promote respect for laws and legal processes, safeguard human rights, and at all times advance the honor and integrity of the legal profession.

As an officer of the court, a lawyer shall uphold the rule of law and conscientiously assist in the speedy and efficient administration of justice.

As an advocate, a lawyer shall represent the client with fidelity and zeal within the bounds of the law and the CPRA.

SECTION 3. *Lawyer-client relationship. — A lawyer-client relationship is of the highest fiduciary character. As a trust relation, it is essential that the engagement is founded on the confidence reposed by the client on the lawyer. Therefore, a lawyer-client relationship shall arise when the client consciously, voluntarily and in good faith vests a lawyer with the client's confidence for the purpose of rendering legal services such as providing legal advice or representation, and the lawyer, whether expressly or impliedly, agrees to render such services.

SECTION 4. *Authority of lawyer to bind client. — A lawyer can bind a client in a legal engagement only when so authorized through a written agreement. The lawyer, however, cannot compromise a client's litigation, or receive anything in discharge of a client's claim, without a special power of attorney for such purpose.

SECTION 5. *Authority of lawyer to appear. — A lawyer is presumed to be properly authorized to represent any cause in which he or she appears, and no written power of attorney is required to authorize him or her to appear in court for the client.

The court, tribunal, or other government agency may, on its own initiative or on motion of either party, on just cause, require a lawyer to produce or prove the authority to appear on behalf of the client.

SECTION 6. *Fiduciary duty of a lawyer. — A lawyer shall be mindful of the trust and confidence reposed by the client.

To this end, a lawyer shall not abuse or exploit the relationship with a client.

SECTION 7. *Prohibition against frivolous suits and abuse of court processes. — A lawyer shall not:

- (a) file or encourage the filing of any suit or proceeding not authorized by law or jurisprudence and without any evidentiary support;
  - (b) unduly impede the execution of an order or judgment which is warranted; or
  - (c) abuse court processes.

SECTION 8. *Lawyer's duty to encourage settlement. — A lawyer shall encourage the client to avoid, end or settle a controversy, whether pending or not, in order to reach a settlement or a compromise if the matter can be compromised under the law and will admit of a fair settlement.

To this end, the lawyer shall actively assist the parties and the court, tribunal, or other government agency to effect mediation and/or dispute resolution.

SECTION 9. *Duty to call client to rectify fraudulent act. — A lawyer who receives information that a client has, in the course of the representation, perpetrated a fraud in relation to any matter subject of the representation before a court, tribunal, or other government agency, or against any officer thereof, shall promptly call upon the client to rectify the same. Such fraudulent act on the part of the client shall be a ground for the termination by the lawyer of the engagement.

SECTION 10. *Responsibility over a subordinate lawyer, paralegal, or employee. — A lawyer or law firm shall be responsible for the mistakes, negligence, and/or acts or omissions of a subordinate lawyer, paralegal, or employee under the lawyer's direct supervision and control, who is acting within the scope of the assigned tasks, that cause damage or injury which brings dishonor to the profession or violates the rule on confidentiality.

However, such liability of the supervising lawyer does not attach upon proof of exercise of diligence of a good parent of a family in the selection and supervision of subordinate lawyer, paralegal, or employee.

The Supreme Court may, in its discretion, impose the penalty of disbarment depending on the number and gravity of the aggravating circumstances.

If one (1) or more mitigating circumstances and no aggravating circumstances are present, the Supreme Court may impose the penalties of suspension or fine for a period or amount not less than half of the minimum prescribed under the CPRA.

If there are both aggravating and mitigating circumstances present, the Supreme Court may offset each other.

SECTION 40. *Penalty for multiple offenses. — If the respondent is found liable for more than one (1) offense arising from separate acts or omissions in a single administrative proceeding, the Court shall impose separate penalties for each offense. Should the aggregate of the imposed penalties exceed five (5) years of suspension from the practice of law or P1,000,000.00 in fines, the respondent may, in the discretion of the Supreme Court, be meted with the penalty of disbarment.

SECTION 42. *Penalty when the respondent has been previously disbarred. — When the respondent has been previously disbarred and is subsequently found guilty of a new charge, the Court may impose a fine or order the disbarred lawyer to return the money or property to the client, when proper. If the new charge deserves the penalty of a disbarment or suspension from the practice of law, it shall not be imposed but the penalty shall be recorded in the personal file of the disbarred lawyer in the Office of the Bar Confidant or other office designated for the purpose. In the event that the disbarred lawyer applies for judicial clemency, the penalty so recorded shall be considered in the resolution of the same.

SECTION 43. *Immediately executory; furnished copies. — The decision or resolution pronouncing the respondent's administrative liability is immediately executory. The copies of the decision or resolution shall be furnished to the Office of the Bar Confidant, the IBP National Office and local chapter to which the respondent belongs, and the Office of the Court Administrator for circulation to all the courts.

SECTION 44. *Confidentiality. — Proceedings against lawyers shall be confidential. However, the final order of the Supreme Court shall be published like its decisions in other cases.

The Sworn Statement shall state the date of the lawyer's receipt of the order, decision or resolution imposing the penalty of suspension, as well as a list of the lawyer's engagements affected by the suspension, indicating the relevant court, tribunal or other government agency, if any.

Copies of the Sworn Statement shall be furnished to the Local Chapter of the IBP, to the Executive Judge of the courts where the suspended lawyer has pending cases handled by him or her, and/or where he or she has appeared as counsel.

SECTION 46. *Resumption of practice of law. — The Sworn Statement shall be considered as proof of the suspended lawyer's compliance with the order of suspension. Such lawyer shall be allowed to resume the practice of law upon the filing of the Sworn Statement before the Supreme Court.

However, any false statement in the Sworn Statement shall be a ground for a complaint for disbarment.

Within five (5) days from the filing of the Sworn Statement and the Office of the Bar Confidant determines that there is a false statement stated therein, it shall refer the same to the Court for its immediate action.

SECTION 47. *Reinstatement in the Roll of Attorneys. — A lawyer who has been disbarred may file a verified petition for judicial clemency after five (5) years from the receipt of the order, decision, or resolution of disbarment.

- (d) that he or she has reconciled, or attempted in good faith to reconcile, with the wronged private offended party in the disbarment case, or if the same is not possible, an explanation as to why such attempt at reconciliation could not be made.

Where there is no private offended party, the plea for clemency must contain a public apology; and

- (e) notwithstanding the conduct for which the disbarred lawyer was disciplined, he or she has the requisite good moral character and competence.

Any of the following allegations may also be made in support of the petition:

- (a) that he or she still has productive years that can be put to good use if given a chance; or
- (b) there is a showing of promise (such as intellectual aptitude, learning or legal acumen or contribution to legal scholarship and the development of the legal system or administrative and other relevant skills), as well as potential for public service.

SECTION 49. *Action on the petition for judicial clemency; prima facie merit. — Upon receipt of the petition, the Supreme Court shall conduct a preliminary evaluation and determine if the same has prima facie merit based on the criteria.

If the petition has prima facie merit, the Supreme Court shall refer the petition to the Office of the Bar Confidant or any fact-finding body the Court so designates for investigation, report and recommendation.

If the petition fails to show any prima facie merit, it shall be denied outright.

SECTION 50. *Investigation by the Office of the Bar Confidant or other fact-finding body. — The Office of the Bar Confidant or any other fact-finding body designated shall conduct and terminate the investigation and submit to the Supreme Court its report and recommendation within ninety (90) calendar days from receipt of the referral.

SECTION 51. *Decision on the petition for judicial clemency; quantum of evidence. — The Supreme Court shall decide the petition on the basis of clear and convincing evidence.

SECTION 52. *Prohibition against employment of disbarred or suspended lawyer. — A lawyer who has been disbarred or suspended shall not be employed or engaged in the practice of law, including the performance of the following acts:

- (e) Receiving, disbursing, or otherwise handling a client's funds;
- (f) Teaching law subjects in any educational institution; or
- (g) Acting and being commissioned as a Notary Public.

A suspended lawyer shall immediately cease and desist from the practice of law until the suspension is lifted by the Supreme Court.

Any client previously represented by a suspended lawyer may engage the services of a new lawyer.

The disbarment or suspension of a handling lawyer shall not terminate the lawyer-client engagement between the client and the law firm, unless the client chooses otherwise.

SECTION 53. *Costs. — All reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in relation to disciplinary and disbarment proceedings are lawful charges for which the parties may be taxed as costs, subject to proof.
